

The UC Davis School of Medicine and The Permanente Medical Group Proudly Announce Prep Médico: Navigating Your Path Into Medicine

The UC Davis School of Medicine and The Permanente Medical Group are very pleased to offer this six-week summer residential program for freshman and sophomore college students. The Program seeks to build the next generation of physicians committed to serving and advancing the health of Latinx and other underserved communities.

Program highlights

Participants will:

- Shadow health professionals at UC Davis Medical Center and Kaiser facilities
- Examine Latinx health disparities and the social determinants of health
- Participate in medical simulation labs
- Understand their personal leadership style and develop new skills
- Receive structured academic advising and mentoring
- Be eligible for a graduation stipend on successful Program completion

Additionally:

- Housing and transportation are provided
- There is no application fee

Navigating Your Path Into Medicine is the introductory component of Prep Médico, the Preparando Estudiantes Para Ser Médicos (Preparing Students to Be Physicians) Program – a comprehensive, longitudinal pipeline initiative spanning the undergraduate pre-health years through medical school.

Program eligibility

- First- or second-year college student
- Resident of the Central Valley or Northern California
- Completion of English Composition AND first semester of General Chemistry OR General Biology
- GPA of 2.85 or higher
- Demonstrated interest in becoming a physician and serving Latinx and underserved communities
- Proof of all required immunizations

Applications Open

December 1, 2019

For more information:

bit.ly/prepmedico

hs-prepmedico@ucdavis.edu

916-734-2743

*Scan QR code to watch program video